CLINTON, Ia., May 2.—After beating the Missouri University 3 to 2, and after running away from the Missouri Valley aggregation 7 to 3, the Central College fell before us by a score of 26 to 0. What accounted for such a big score, I couldn't possibly tell, except that everyone in our team was fielding and batting like a phenomenon. We made but four errors, but they were not at all costly. The hitting was furious for we collected no less than 21 hits off three pitchers. This is the record for the number of hits so far, and I may as well say that this is also the largest score made yet.

Shirley Ayau was the heaviest hitter of the day, for he made five hits out of six chances. One of the hits was a homer, one two-bagger and three singles. Jim Chinito, Markham and Kauli also did well with the stick with five-up and three hits; six up, four hits and six up, three hits, respectively.

George Bo (Bush) pitched a second no-run and one-hit game. If First-baseman Yap had not misjudged the slow fly over first base, George would have gotten a no-hit and no-run game to his credit. But credit must also be given to the team back of George. The infielders worked untidily and in harmony and the like may be applied to our outfielders, also. Many seemingly safe hits in the out and infield were cut off by mere extra efforts on players' part and if this is going to be kept up we are going to have some team, and I think we'll be able to set a better record than the 1913 team.

The score:
Chinese, hits . . . 3 3 0 4 1 2 1 5 2—21
Runs . . . 4 3 0 5 0 1 1 9 3—26
Cent. Col., hits . . . 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—1
Battery—Chinese, Geo. Bo and Mark. Central College, Collins, Cope, Rowland, Aswald and Chug.
Booneville beaten.

We defeated the invincible Booneville team, as they called themselves, by a score of 10 to 5. They are, indeed, a bunch of fast ball players, but they went against a team that was a little better than they were. They had in their lineup two varsity players from Missouri and one hired professional. The two varsity players were Taylor, pitcher, and Hogg, first-baseman, and the last man, Cadwell, who pitched against us at the State Normal game.

Taylor started to pitch for Booneville, but he was soon batted out of the box in the sixth inning. He was replaced by Dago.

Apau was in the box for us and he held the Booneville sluggers to eight hits and five runs. He was also ably supported by the rest of the team, both in fielding and batting.

The field on which we played was situated in the hills. When we were first told about it many of us could hardly believe it, but when we were taken there we were convinced. The diamond was first-rate in every respect, but out in the field it was not. The left field had a long ravine; the center field was thick with trees; the right field had a precipice with a straight drop of about 25 feet. It is a ball was hit into any of these three places one could make a home run by walking around the circuit before the ball was found.

The attendance was good and they showed that they were real baseball fans by remaining to see the finish of the game, though it rained. The rain came down suddenly in the third inning and it rained heavily for about eight minutes. The game was stopped for a while, but when the rain ceased the game was resumed.

After the game the crowd congratulated our team for their fine playing and the victory over the "Invincibles of Booneville."

The score:
Chinese, hits . . . 5 3 1 0 0 2 3 1 0—15
Runs . . . 4 1 0 0 3 2 0 0—10
Booneville, hits . . . 0 1 0 0 2 0 1 0 4—8
Runs . . . 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0 3—5
Battery—Chinese, Apau and Mark. Booneville, Taylor, Dago and Warren.

GARDEN ISLANDERS TO SEE DUKE IN ACTION

The people of Kauai will have a long-anticipated opportunity to see Duke Kahanamoku in action during the visit of the congressional party to the Garden Island. Duke, who is traveling with the distinguished visitors, gave an exhibition of his swimming skill at Punene, Maui, and it occurred to Representative Coney of Kauai that it would be a fine thing for the Kauai swimmers if the speedy Hawaiian champion could perform there also.

W. T. Rawlins and Duke were called into consultation, and as a result Duke will swim at Hanalei, and at Niumalu, Mr. Coney's place on Kauai. At both points there is a landing stage that offers a good vantage point for spectators.

FANNY DURACK, SPEED SWIMMER, MAY STOP HERE

News from William Coffman, manager of Suro Baths and a swimming enthusiast, comes that there will be women's swimming races held at the baths on the 19th to 24th of June, inclusive. It is expected that Fanny Durack, Aus., the woman champion in the distances from 50 yards to a mile, will be present, also a protege of Annette Kellerman, who recently has been making world time in practice swims for the 100, and 50-yard dashes. If Miss Durack accepts San Francisco's offer she will pass through Honolulu on the Ventura the 14th of June and may stay over a week to swim the Honolulu girls.

San Francisco has appropriated funds for Ruth Stacker and chaperone to attend the meet.

EDITH CARTER STILL PUNAHOU TENNIS CHAMP

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
PUNAHOU, May 12.—In the tennis tournament which has recently been held at Punahou Academy, Edith Carter was pronounced champion in the girls' singles. Miss Carter was last year's champion. Dora Lidgate and Margaret Austin, Elizabeth Rosenbaum and Cornelle McCann, Gladys Halstead and Margaret Smith, Mildred Bromwell and Genevieve Hawkins, Marian Paris and Alleen Gibb, Myrtle Taylor and Florence Davis, Adelaide Pratt and Mary McCann, Dorothy Walker and Florence White and Cleo and Stella Hogg. At the end of the series, out of these 20 contestants, Mildred Bromwell and Elizabeth Rosenbaum were left. Mildred Bromwell won from Elizabeth Rosenbaum by a score of 6-2, 6-2. It was then Mildred Bromwell's turn to play the champion of last year's tournament. In the game with Edith Carter, Mildred Bromwell was defeated by a score of 6-1, 6-3, 6-3.

THIN PEOPLE CAN INCREASE WEIGHT

Thin men and women who would like to increase their weight with 10 or 15 pounds of healthy "fat" may find this a little Sargol with their meals for a while and note results. Here is a good test worth trying. First weigh yourself and measure yourself. Then take Sargol—two tablets with every meal—for two weeks. Then weigh yourself again. It isn't a question of how you look or feel or what your friends say and think. The scale and tape measure will tell their own story, and most any thin man or woman can easily add from five to eight pounds in the first fourteen days by following this simple direction. And best of all, the new flesh stays put.

Sargol does not of itself make fat, but mixing with your food, it turns the fats, sugars and starches of what you have eaten, into rich, ripe fat, producing nourishment for the tissues and blood—prepares it in an easily assimilated form which the blood can readily accept. All this nourishment now passes from your body as waste. But Sargol stops the waste and does it quickly and makes the fat producing contents of the very same meals you are eating now develop pounds and pounds of healthy flesh between your skin and bones. Sargol is safe, pleasant, efficient and inexpensive.

LAWN TENNIS STAR FALLS FIGHTING FOR HIS COUNTRY

Press despatches state that Anthony F. Wilding, probably the greatest tennis player of his time, has been killed in action at the Dardanelles. As a singles player Wilding was a marvel, but in doubles, paired with Norman Brookes, he was invincible. The above picture shows Brookes and the late Anthony Wilding, the latter being the figure on the left.

CHRISTY MATHEWSON SAYS EDDIE COLLINS LIKES CHICAGO MANAGER

BY CHRISTY MATHEWSON.

When Eddie Collins went to Chicago recently to join the White Sox before the tea meet for California, he had to be introduced to the manager of the club. Eddie had never seen him before, but Collins has learned to like him, and his new club very quickly, according to a letter he wrote to a friend of mine recently. It is a big chance for Eddie, who has long been schooled under Connie Mack—in fact, he grew up in the Mack school. Rowland "Has the Goods."

"Rowland has the goods," says Eddie in his letter. "He knows baseball and he knows players and he knows human nature. Every man on the team is pulling for him already. He likes speed and he keeps pushing us all to go faster. He has fast men on the club, too. I never have realized Weaver's speed from playing against him. I found it out when I started to work shoulder to shoulder with him. Of course, it was hard for me to leave the Athletics, where I grew up in baseball, and I left many good friends there. I hope. When told I was going to be traded, I was disappointed at first, but I knew that the team had lost money on the year and I had signed a contract in the middle of the season for five years, which called for a good salary. The first intimation I had I was to be traded was when Ben Johnson mentioned it to me. I told him that I would like to go to New York, but he said things were unsettled on that club at the time. Capt. Huston and Col. Ruppert had not bought the club then. My home had always been in the east and I thought I preferred that part of the country."

"But I did not know the White Sox or their owner or their new manager as well then as I do now. I think Mr. Comiskey is one of the finest men in the world, and I feel sure that Rowland has the goods to be a big league manager."

Doesn't Want to Boss Club.

"Don't let any one tell you I ever had any hopes of being manager either in New York or Chicago. I don't want to have any such job as long as I am good enough to be in the batting order regularly. I believe that one end or the other is bound to suffer as a result. Either a man's playing is hurt by worries of managing, or he neglects some of the duties of leadership. All I hope now is that I can deliver for Mr. Comiskey and the Chicago fans as much, and more, than they expect from me. At that, I don't see why they should expect so much, and no one was more surprised than I was when I found out at what price I had been sold."

"You ask me what I think of the Athletics' chances. Should Frank Baker come back, I believe Mack has a grand chance to take another pennant if he can beat the White Sox. Even with the veterans of his pitching staff gone, he has some strong performers left, take it from me. Several of the Athletics' young pitchers are going to be stars this year. Lajoie has two or three seasons of good baseball left in him, and he will be dangerous any time he comes to the bat, as always. In fact, I think he will hit harder for Connie than he has for the last two or three seasons, as he did get along very well with Birmingham. Then the Cleveland club has been a light hitting team for the last two or three years, and it helps a man's batting to be hooked up with a lot of steady sluggers.

"Frank Baker is one of the few ball players who has really wanted to quit the game for farming. Connie has had to use his strongest powers of persuasion for several seasons to induce him to come away from Trappe, Md., in the spring and go to the training camp. Frank doesn't like the road trips, but I believe Connie will induce him to return. All the boys listen to Connie. If Baker does come back look out for the Athletics. If he doesn't, Frank's big bat and his steady work at third base will be missed, take it from me. Perhaps it sounds early to predict, but I believe the White Sox are going to make them all travel."

HAD HEARD HER.
"Are you going to the musicale at the Robinsons' tonight?"
"I don't know. Are they going to have music, or is Josephine going to sing?"—Boston Globe.

YALE ROWING MEN HOPE FOR SUCCESS AGAIN

[By Latest Mail]
NEW YORK, N. Y.—With Guy Nickalls back from England, crew work at Yale has become active in preparation for another victory over the Crimston at New London next June. Last season the new Yale rowing policy was something of an experiment, and hopes and doubts struggled against each other almost up to the day of the big race. There is a different condition now. Nickalls has proved his theory by an indisputable victory, and his judgment from now on will remain unquestioned in all that pertains to the rowing policy at New Haven. And as a matter of fact that policy has been quite clearly outlined.

It is not known that the Yale varsity will use an English made shell, equipped with thole pins, but in arrangement of seats the American custom will prevail, that of placing them directly over the keel, instead of zigzag as in the usual type of English boat.

The performance of the Yale crew last year when it used the thole pin rig and the corroborative evidence which was gathered from the performance of Pennsylvania on the Hudson have been taken as a justification of what by many was considered an obsolete method. The fact that Capt. Denegre and Coach Nickalls are in accord on all of the main points of the rowing policy gives confidence that there will be no hitch in carrying out active training along a successful issue.

In point of material Yale starts the season with a strong asset. Jack Appleton, who stroked the Blue to victory last season, is out of college, but there are three likely men from whom to pick his successor. They are Coe, Morse and Gilfillan, all of whom took part in the fall regatta.

It was Coe's eight which showed the way to the others, then and for the start, at least, he will probably take the stroke oar in the varsity combination. Of the men who were boated in last year's shell there remain Sturtevant, Sheldon, Mayer and Lo, so that there are only four places to fill and there is a strong representation eligible from the second varsity and the freshman eights of last season. Of the second eight there are this year's varsity Capt. Denegre, Gilfillan, Fitzpatrick, Stillman, Coe, Harrison and Bennett. Of the freshman eight there are Meyer, H. Coe, Atkins and Harriman. In addition to these men there will be a large string of new candidates for Nickalls and Gilfillan to pick from.

Denegre will undoubtedly find a place in the varsity boat if he can overcome a technical defect in his rowing, which tends to a lack of unity in the eight. He pulls a powerful oar, and if he succeeds in satisfying Nickalls the placing of him in the boat would prove popular with the undergraduates.

HIGH ALLEY SCORES.

J. C. Chamberlain and W. A. Raseman are now in the lead for first place in the ragtime tournament on the Y. M. C. A. alleys. These two bowlers rolled up a total of 1261 pins in three games yesterday, a mark that would stand in almost any doubles tournament in the country.

Chamberlain bowled a total of 639 for his three games, while Raseman had 622, the best score of his life. Second place in the ragtime tournament is held by J. C. Chamberlain and A. R. Tulloch with 1168. Chamberlain bowled 620 and Tulloch 548. Some of the best scores for the first two days' play are as follows:
Raseman and Chamberlain . . . 1261
Chamberlain and Tulloch . . . 1168
Goebig and Chamberlain . . . 1147
Treptow and Goebig . . . 1118
Scott and Jackson . . . 1105
Bell and Canario . . . 1101
Emmans and Alexander . . . 1058
The committee in charge of the bowlers' banquet will meet at 7 o'clock tomorrow night in the Y. M. C. A. general secretary's office. Invitations are being mailed today to all the league bowlers for this annual banquet, which takes place next Monday evening.

ARTILLERY FOUR WILL MEET THE OAHU POLOISTS

Although the Maui team will be unable to make the trip to Oahu to play polo, the proposed match next Saturday for the entertainment of the congressional party will not be abandoned. The 1st Field Artillery will put a team in the field to go against Oahu, and indications are that the game will be well worth watching.

It is probable that Lieut. C. K. Lyman of the 4th Cavalry will play on the army team, the other members being Lieuts. Beard, Dodds and Peyton. Lieut. Harold Naylor, captain of the Field Artillery four, is laid up as the result of a spill a few days ago and is unable to take the saddle.

For Oahu Walter Dillingham will captain the team and probably play his old position of No. 3. Harold Cawley will play No. 2, Sam Baldwin No. 1 and Walter Macfarlane and R. W. Shingle, back. This arrangement is not definite but all the players named will be given a chance to play.

The Maui team was to have come down on a flying trip, arriving Saturday and leaving the same evening, but business arrangements of several of the players necessitated the abandonment of this plan.

Army Players Ready.

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, May 12.—The polo players had practice yesterday for a game to be played next Saturday with Oahu at Moanalua park.

As the players of the garrison had no knowledge of the match until yesterday morning they have only two days in which to select a team to represent the post. The ponies will have to go to town Thursday.

The lineup for the team that was worked yesterday was Lieut. Dodds, 1st Field Artillery, No. 1; Lieut. Beard, 1st Field Artillery, No. 2; Lieut. Lyman, 4th Cavalry, No. 3, and Lieut. Peyton, 1st Field Artillery, No. 4. There will be a fairly good string of ponies for the army team and a good string of players. But they are expected to be lacking in team work as the four have never played together before and Peyton and Beard are playing in positions they are unaccustomed to.

Unfortunately, Lieut. Naylor, the Field Artillery captain, will be unable to play on account of the injuries received in practice last week. This player was on the field yesterday, however, for the purpose of directing the practice.

DOUBLES TITLE TO BE DECIDED TODAY ON MOANA COURTS

Warren go against the winner of the Eklund-O'Dowda and Argabrite-Hoogs match, which was called on account of darkness yesterday afternoon after each team had won two sets. The deciding set will be played at 3:30 on the Moana Hotel courts, and immediately following the winners will play Castle and Warren for the title.
